

Cornerstone Christian University
Maitland, FL
Online

Master of Arts in Biblical Studies Program

Field experience may be credited as practicum and PL may also apply as credits

This is 48 credit hour program leading to a Master of Arts in Biblical Studies Degree in Ministry Studies (BIS.M.), which requires no Thesis Project.

The purpose Biblical Studies (BIS.M.) program is to provide the candidate with an advanced competencies and biblical insights through in the helping profession, preparation and observation for those actively involved in vocational Christian ministry of counseling. Cornerstone focuses on knowledge and understanding rather the actual degree itself. For this purpose, CCU's requirements and standards are slightly higher without any additional cost to you. From the start of your first course up to your graduation you'll know your interest, perception, and desire are biblically oriented and intellectually stimulated and you'll be humbly proud of your education and the degree up on your wall.

Contextually speaking, apart from a stated regulate licensure; individual Graduated from the Ministry Studies will be prepared to:

- Demonstrate an advanced understanding and integration of ministry in relation to the ministry studies, academic, and educational disciplines.
- Articulate and apply a comprehensive and critical philosophy of ministry.
- Demonstrate advanced competencies in the areas of critical thinking, Research and Writing, Biblical studies, Biblical Communication, Administration/Education Leadership, and Great Commission Strategies.
- Plan, implement, and critically evaluate major undertakings in ministry toward the fulfillment of the Great Commission and the Great Commandment.
- Evaluate personal, spiritual, and professional development and design a plan for lifelong learning.

Course descriptions for Biblical Studies degree

Note: there are more courses than what is required. This gives you as a student the flexibility to design your own curriculum by choosing the course of your interest.

1. Course: Introduction to the Bible

(3-credits)

Course Number: HRM503

Description: A Literary, Historical, and Contemporary Perspective of the Bible

Introduction to the Bible approaches the Bible by considering it from three different viewpoints: literary, historical, and contemporary. This unique approach underscores the dynamics of each view and the methods scholars have developed to study them.

2. Course: Biblical Hermeneutics

(3-credits)

Course Number: BIS513

This course is a basic study introducing the student to the science of interpreting the Scriptures. Various phases and methods of understanding interpretation are examined and explored.

3. Course: Christian Apologetics

(3-credits)

Course Number: BIS523

This is a study of Christian Apologetics for the purpose of equipping the pastor, minister, or lay leader in the defense of the Truths of God. This study is in three parts: 1) deals with various tests for truth in order to lay a foundation for testing the “truths” of various world views, 2) applies the test for truth to those views, and 3) works within the theistic view to verify the deity of Jesus and the authority of the Bible.

4. Course: Foundation of Faith II

(3-credits)

Course Number: BIS533

This course is a continuation of the Foundation of Faith, which explores the foundation of faith for Christian life. Faith is the foundation of Christian belief.

5. Course: Old Testament Studies

(3-credits)

Course Number: BIS 453

This course explores the entire Old Testament in a practical way. Every book is analyzed based on the principle, the concept, and personages involved.

6. Course: Historical Books

(3-credits)

Course Number: BIS563

Description: This course deals with the twelve books of the Bible from Joshua through Esther. The historical books are fundamental to the Christian beliefs and practice. Students will find this class very enriching to their personal life and ministry.

7. Course: Psalms: The Bible's Heartbeat

(3-credits)

Course Number: BIS573

The Bible's Heartbeat is a textbook-commentary on the book of Psalms.

This book will be useful to all who study, teach, or simply read and enjoy this remarkable portion of Scripture.

8. Course: Exploring the Pentateuch

(3-credits)

Course Number: BIS583

The Pentateuch is a study manual, a reference source, and a textbook-commentary on the first five books of the Bible

9. Course: The Book of Romans

(3-credits)

Course Number: BIS593

This course presents Romans in a way that best helps those understand the way to salvation. It answers the great question, "How can a man be righteous before God?"

11. Course: Pauline Epistle

(3-credits)

Course Number: BIS603

This course is a continuation of the Foundation of Faith, which explores the foundation of faith for Christian life. Faith is the foundation of Christian belief.

12. Course: General Epistles

(3-credits)

Course Number: BIS613

This course is fundamental to Bible students because it details many key issues of the Christian Faith. Students will enjoy and learn from the church forefather the key principles to the effectiveness of their ministry.

13. Course: Ephesians

(3-credits)

Course Number: BIS623

Description: The study on the Epistle to the Ephesians is a contribution to The New International Commentary on the New Testament.

Prepared by some of the world's leading scholars, the series provides an exposition of the New Testament books that is thorough and fully abreast of modern scholarship yet faithful to the Scriptures as the infallible Word of God.

14. Course: The Four Gospels

(3-credits)

Course Number: BIS633

All four gospels will be covered in-depth exploring the unique aspects of each. A comparison will be made between them accordingly.

15. Course: Hebrews

(3-credits)

Course Number: BIS623

Description: The study on the Epistle to the Hebrews is a contribution to The New International Commentary on the New Testament.

Prepared by some of the world's leading scholars, the series provides an exposition of the New Testament books that is thorough and fully abreast of modern scholarship yet faithful to the Scriptures as the infallible Word of God.

16. The Prophets of Israel(3-credits)

Course Number BIS664

Course Description: This course starts with an informative introduction and brings to students a clear understanding and comprehensive study of the Prophets of Israel, their call, and their functions as related to the office of the prophets.

17. Course: Christology(3-credits)

Course Number: BIS684

This book presents one of the most thorough and passionate studies of Christology. It covers all components of the eternal existence of Christ, life of Christ, atoning work of Christ, and future work of Christ, as well as other topics. This book's approach is dispensational and premillennial and he offers cogent defenses of his views. This work is both scholarly, reverent, and at times devotional.

No Thesis

Books: e-book/PDF textbooks are free on most cases. Printed copies are extra at the expenses of the students.

Students are suggested to order their books for each class with ample time prior to the start of their class. Duration of the program: 18-24 months depending on the student's ability to complete classes in timely manner.